Rick Hubbard

“The King of Kazoo”

Rick Hubbard, “The King of Kazoo”, entertains audiences of all ages all across America. Everyone gets a FREE KAZOO and joins in the show. He’s performed at theaters, festivals and events from Disney World to the Kennedy Center. Over the years Rick has given away over ONE MILLION KAZOOS!

“Kazoobie” means, “exceptional, fun, involving everyone” - the kind of time everyone has in the Kazoo-Along Show. Rick brings audience members on stage to perform with him in the show in a segment called “Crazy Hatters Appearing On Stage” or “CHAOS” as Rick calls it. Everyone gets involved.

You’ll kazoo along with your favorite songs, laugh at the comedy and stage antics of Rick and live, laugh, and love with your Red Hat friends.

FREE KAZOOS!

Red Hatters love Rick’s hit songs, “If Mama Ain’t Happy, Ain’t Nobody Happy”, and “Let’s Put A RED HAT In The WHITE HOUSE.”

Rick is the founder and president of Kazoobie Kazoos, “America’s Kazoo Factory”, which manufactures and supplies the OFFICIAL kazooos of the Red Hat Society.
